

Nimue

Oak Consulting

© Simone Moore, 2004

PO Box 245
Drummoyne NSW 1470
Mobile: 0410 472 711
www.nimueoak.com.au
Email: simone@nimueoak.com.au

On Stage

Our interactive style is a toolbox of techniques, simply fantastic, fun and memorable ensuring synchronicity in the mind, body and spirit of a company.

"Simone's passion and enthusiasm delivering the courseware was inspiring and motivating."

"I think Simone is one of the most outstanding presenters I've ever encountered. Absolutely brilliant."

"Thank you Simone! Your knowledge, sense of humour and vast experience made this course extremely interesting & relevant. I'd attend ANY of your courses!"

"Simone is an excellent trainer who is flexible, professional and can also adapt a program to suit the customer's needs. We achieved outstanding results."

Do your presentations have them leaving the room or so uninvolved, they roll Jaffa's down the aisle? .

A presentation is a journey taking your audience from a promise to reality - using the power of story. You are the director, producer and actor playing a part. Before you can have opening night, there is auditioning, casting & rehearsing.

There are stage sets to build, costumes to design, lighting and music arrangements, all of these acting as an integrated whole to produce a show worth remembering!

This highly interactive one-day workshop will provide the key concepts of how to create an Oscar winning presentation.

Key Outcomes

Enter Stage Right - Use proven, successful techniques and Exit Stage Left - have your audience begging for more!

- ▲ Identify and respond to the communication process
- ▲ Identify and respond to particular learning and communication styles
- ▲ Identify and respond to customer proficiency, vocabulary and responsibility
- ▲ Design an outline, agenda and core material for a presentation, seminar or workshop

Your Facilitator

For many years, Simone has worked in the service industry enabling business and cultural change in Government bodies, large corporates and other commercial enterprises. Through a variety of consulting, coaching, mentoring and training programs, Simone positively affects the lives of many people, individually and within the work environment. Change happens through the individual multiplied by the team, building a dynamic force. Simone creates the possibility for you to re-energise and inspire.

Simone is tertiary and industry qualified specialising in customer service, strategic planning and organisational development, change management and human resources as well as specific industry qualifications in IT, Contact Centres and Help Desk. This includes being a member of the HDI International Certification Standards Committee. In addition, she holds qualifications in various therapeutic techniques successfully incorporated into corporate environments.

